This is my collection of the Battlecars from the popular tv show, BattleBots. "Battlebots" is a television series on NBC that debuted in 1997. The show focused on two teams of remotely controlled robots who competed against each other. The machines competed in an elimination tournament where the robots were eventually judged and ultimately awarded points to determine a champion. The shows ran for 5 seasons with a total of 47 episodes, and had two spinoffs, "BattleBots Junior" which ran for two seasons and "Battlebots: The Movie" which ran for one season. The robots were controlled using joysticks, and were designed and built by the Fred Savage Design Group. The robots had two options, called "Mode A" and "Mode B." Each robot consisted of two "bodies" (arms) and two "heads" (tools) on the end of each arm. Each "body" had one of three different weapons that could be attached to it. One of the weapons was a maneuverable "hammer" which was used to smash the other robot. The other weapon could be attached to the body in either a primary or secondary position. The primary weapon, in most cases, was a two-handed "knife" which was used to slash the opponent. The secondary
